

Washington, D.C. High-Stakes Tests

Standards-Based Instruction Individualized to Each Student's Needs

Comprehensive preparation for end-of-course and exit exams requires highly individualized content review, not practice test after practice test. That's why Edgenuity's Virtual Tutor courses use diagnostic pretests to create an individualized content review program for each student.

Program Features	Advantages
Organized by Strand	Allows students to work through manageable sections
Up-front Diagnostic for Each Strand	Assesses each student's strengths and weaknesses
Personalized Learning Path for Each Student	Reviews the content that each student needs, without including content the student already knows
Video Instruction by Expert Teachers	Guides students through the content, just like an in-person teacher would
Frequent Assessment	Helps students monitor their own understanding and stay on track
Easy-to-Read Reporting	Provides real-time data for teachers

Dynamic reporting allows teachers to view detailed metrics on every topic students review, with tools to help teachers group students by areas of weakness. By highlighting the topics with which students are struggling, Edgenuity's mastery report lets teachers prioritize their time, maximizing efficiency and effectiveness.
