

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Details	Objectives/Instruction
Unit 19 (Lessons 1-10): Professions
Unit 19 (Lessons 1-10): Professions: Vocabulary Activities
		Vocabulary Topic: Professions	Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 19 (Lessons 1-10): Professions: Grammar Activities
		Grammar Pattern: Possessive Adjectives	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.
Unit 19 (Lessons 1-10): Professions: Culture Activities
		Culture: Switzerland	Students read about a variety of topics including land and climate, history, the flag, population, language, religion, general attitudes, personal appearance, greetings, gestures, food, lifestyle, society, and government. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on population and language.
Unit 19 (Lessons 1-10): Professions: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: Discovery of Grammar 4	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.
		Explore: Understanding the Culture	Students read about a variety of topics including land and climate, history, the flag, population, language, religion, general attitudes, personal appearance, greetings, gestures, food, lifestyle, society, and government. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity.
Unit 19 (Lessons 1-10): Professions: Writing Practice
			Students imagine themselves at a large family reunion. They write at least three complete sentences in German in which they say what they see. Example: "Ich sehe . . ." They must use the proper articles in each sentence.
Unit 19 (Lessons 1-10): Professions: Assessments
		Quiz: Speaking	Students name three relatives and tell what their professions are. They record themselves saying this in German. Example: Mein Bruder ist Lehrer.
		Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar	A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.
Unit 19 (Lessons 11-20): Clothing
Unit 19 (Lessons 11-20): Clothing: Vocabulary Activities
		Vocabulary Topic: False Cognates	Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 19 (Lessons 11-20): Clothing: Grammar Activities
		Grammar Pattern: Common Prepositions	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.
Unit 19 (Lessons 11-20): Clothing: Culture Activities
		Culture: Switzerland	Students read about a variety of topics including land and climate, history, the flag, population, language, religion, general attitudes, personal appearance, greetings, gestures, food, lifestyle, society, and government. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on the flag.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Details	Objectives/Instruction
Unit 19 (Lessons 11-20): Clothing: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: Ditties	In this module students learn a simple song. They recognize terms and phrases from Ditties, and they recognize some patterns in how sentences look. They also practice singing or telling Ditties.
		Explore: Becoming a Lifelong Learner - Part 1	Students think about the Germany-speaking resources available in the community or online: stores or restaurants in the community that are run or frequented by German speakers. They set habits by writing a plan to interact with the German-speakers available to them. For the Language or Culture Resources column, students try to identify three different resources: 1. A friend or contact 2. An information source, and 3. A cultural activity. In the What I Will Do column, students describe as specifically as they can what they will do and when they plan on doing these activities.
Unit 19 (Lessons 11-20): Clothing: Speaking Practice
			Students pretend to have a phone conversation with a friend who asks them what they are wearing: Was trägst du? In three German sentences, they tell her what they are wearing.
Unit 19 (Lessons 11-20): Clothing: Writing Practice
			Students write three sentences in German. Each sentence should use one of the following prepositions correctly: aus, mit, nach, von, zu.
Unit 19 (Lessons 11-20): Clothing: Assessments
		Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar	A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.
Unit 19 (Lessons 21-30): At Home
Unit 19 (Lessons 21-30): At Home: Vocabulary Activities
		Vocabulary Topic: At Home	Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 19 (Lessons 21-30): At Home: Grammar Activities
		Grammar Pattern: Interrogatives and Imperatives	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.
Unit 19 (Lessons 21-30): At Home: Culture Activities
		Culture: Switzerland	Students read about a variety of topics including land and climate, history, the flag, population, language, religion, general attitudes, personal appearance, greetings, gestures, food, lifestyle, society, and government. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on greetings.
Unit 19 (Lessons 21-30): At Home: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: Conversation Snatches 5	Students listen to and read Conversation Snatches for comprehension. They recognize terms and some patterns in the structure of sentences in Conversation Snatches. They recognize and respond appropriately to conversational prompts from Conversation Snatches. Then they practice telling parts of Conversation Snatches.
		Reading: Realia	Students read a short letter written in German and identify which part of the house is not mentioned in the instructions.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Details	Objectives/Instruction
Unit 19 (Lessons 21-30): At Home: Writing Practice			Complete each of the following tasks by writing a sentence in German: 1. Write a question using a question word (interrogative pronoun). 2. Write a 2nd question using the same verb but using inversion (putting the verb first). 3. Give a command (imperative) to a group of two or more people to do something.
Unit 19 (Lessons 21-30): At Home: Assessments Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar			A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.
Unit 22 (Lessons 31-40): The Body
Unit 22 (Lessons 31-40): The Body: Vocabulary Activities Vocabulary Topic: The Body			Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 22 (Lessons 31-40): The Body: Grammar Activities Grammar Pattern: Present Tense of Regular and Irregular Verbs			This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.
Unit 22 (Lessons 31-40): The Body: Culture Activities Culture: Switzerland Culture Report: Switzerland			Students read about a variety of topics including land and climate, history, the flag, population, language, religion, general attitudes, personal appearance, greetings, gestures, food, lifestyle, society, and government. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on the arts, authors, and recreation. Students write Jordan a three-paragraph letter in English, and they compare the culture of Switzerland and American culture, especially in terms of foods, sports, transportation, population, and demographics. They answer the following questions: How is your culture similar to that of Switzerland's? How is it different? They use a lot of details to help Jordan prepare for the trip. They use the internet and the information from the culture videos to get ideas and information.
Unit 22 (Lessons 31-40): The Body: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities Stretch Activity: The Bargain			Students listen to and read a story and then come up with their own ending to the story in German.
Unit 22 (Lessons 31-40): The Body: Speaking Practice			In German, students record themselves saying all the body parts that can be found on their head. They say at least five things.
Unit 22 (Lessons 31-40): The Body: Writing Practice			Students write one sentence in German using each of the following verbs once: essen, fahren, gehen; Each sentence should begin with one of the given subject pronouns. Students use each subject pronoun only once: ich, du, ihr.
Unit 22 (Lessons 31-40): The Body: Assessments Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar			A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Details	Objectives/Instruction
Semester 1 Midterm (Lessons 41-45)
Semester 1 Midterm (Lessons 41-45) Assessments			A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the previous four units. In addition, there is an open-ended speaking assignment where students are asked to talk in 3-five sentences about the clothing (quantities and colors) they need to buy to get ready for a new year at school. They are also given an open-ended writing assignment where they create a paragraph in which they describe their favorite room in their home. They explain why it is their favorite, and use 4-5 complete German sentences to describe what is in the room to make it so special.
Unit 23 (Lessons 46-55): Reflexive Verb List
Unit 23 (Lessons 46-55): Reflexive Verb List: Vocabulary Activities
	Vocabulary Topic: Reflexive Verb List		Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 23 (Lessons 46-55): Reflexive Verb List: Grammar Activities
	Grammar Pattern: Comparison and Superlative of Adjectives		This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.
Unit 23 (Lessons 46-55): Reflexive Verb List: Culture Activities
	Culture: Switzerland		Students read about a variety of topics including land and climate, history, the flag, population, language, religion, general attitudes, personal appearance, greetings, gestures, food, lifestyle, society, and government. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on military service and the St. Gotthard Road Tunnel.
Unit 23 (Lessons 46-55): Reflexive Verb List: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
	Stretch Activity: Discovery of Grammar 5		This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.
Unit 23 (Lessons 46-55): Reflexive Verb List: Writing Practice
			Students write three sentences in German comparing given pairs of animals. Their comparison should be a superlative (i.e., biggest, fastest etc.) and their sentences should be original and should not copy from any course materials or from any other source. 1. Der Elefant : Die Maus 2. Die Katze : Der Tiger 3. Der Kanarienvogel : Der Falke : Der Pinguin (all birds).
Unit 23 (Lessons 46-55): Reflexive Verb List: Assessments
	Quiz: Speaking		Students record themselves speaking in German and comparing themselves favorably to at least three other people. Example: Ich bin lustiger als Mark.
	Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar		A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.
Unit 24 (Lessons 56-65): Cognates and Numbers 1-1000
Unit 24 (Lessons 56-65): Cognates and Numbers 1-1000: Vocabulary Activities
	Vocabulary Topic: Cognates and Numbers 1-1000		Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 24 (Lessons 56-65): Cognates and Numbers 1-1000: Grammar Activities
	Grammar Pattern: Zu Hause/nach Hause		This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Details	Objectives/Instruction
Unit 24 (Lessons 56-65): Cognates and Numbers 1-1000: Culture Activities
		Culture: Switzerland	Students read about a variety of topics including land and climate, history, the flag, population, language, religion, general attitudes, personal appearance, greetings, gestures, food, lifestyle, society, and government. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on housing.
Unit 24 (Lessons 56-65): Cognates and Numbers 1-1000: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: German Numbers 2 Explore: German Products	Using the Internet or other sources, students research information about German cakes or pastries in Germany or other German-speaking countries. The answer the following questions: What different types of cakes, pastries and breads are there? Why is a particular cake, pastry or bread such a common food in Germany or the German-speaking country chosen? Why is it so important to the German culture? Have you ever eaten a German cake, pastry or bread? What kind? Is a German cake, pastry or bread a common food in your household? Do you like German cakes, pastries or bread? What do you eat it with?
Unit 24 (Lessons 56-65): Cognates and Numbers 1-1000: Writing Practice
			Students write three sentences in German telling where they plan on going this Saturday. Their sentences should be original and should not copy from any course materials or from any other source. They use zu or nach as appropriate in each sentence.
Unit 24 (Lessons 56-65): Cognates and Numbers 1-1000: Assessments
		Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar	A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.
Unit 25 (Lessons 66-75): On Vacation
Unit 25 (Lessons 66-75): On Vacation: Vocabulary Activities
		Vocabulary Topic: On Vacation	Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 25 (Lessons 66-75): On Vacation: Grammar Activities
		Grammar Pattern: Modal Verbs	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.
Unit 25 (Lessons 66-75): On Vacation: Culture Activities
		Culture: Lichtenstein	Students watch a video about Lichtenstein. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on the size of the land and its location.
Unit 25 (Lessons 66-75): On Vacation: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: Discovery of Grammar 6 Reading: Realia	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students. Students read a note and explain what they assume the author of the note is doing.
Unit 25 (Lessons 66-75): On Vacation: Writing Practice
			Students write three sentences in German about family members. For each sentence they choose one or more family members and tell what they can, should, or have to do. Students use the modal verbs they have learned this week.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Details	Objectives/Instruction
Unit 25 (Lessons 66-75): On Vacation: Assessments
		Quiz: Speaking	Students record themselves in German telling either where they like to go or what they like to do on vacation. They should say at least three sentences. Example: Ich reise gern nach Deutschland. Ich spiele gern Tennis. A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.
		Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar
Unit 26 (Lessons 76-85): Telephone
Unit 26 (Lessons 76-85): Telephone: Vocabulary Activities
		Vocabulary Topic: Telephone	Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 26 (Lessons 76-85): Telephone: Grammar Activities
		Grammar Pattern: Separable verbs	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.
Unit 26 (Lessons 76-85): Telephone: Culture Activities
		Culture: Liechtenstein	Students watch a video about Lichtenstein. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on the land and its location.
Unit 26 (Lessons 76-85): Telephone: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: Questions of a Small Child	Students listen to a conversation and follow along with the text, keeping a look out for the pattern they've been learning. The count how often they recognize the pattern.
		Explore: World History	Students research a famous historical figure from a German speaking country. They may consider finding information on Johannes Gutenberg, Wilhelm Conrad Röntgen, Karl der Grosse, Alois Alzheimer, Marie Antoinette, Ludwig van Beethoven, Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, or anyone else they prefer. In one paragraph of at least 10 sentences, students write his/her biography in English. In a second paragraph, also of 10 sentences or more, they describe his or her important contributions to the country he/she is from and to the world.
Unit 26 (Lessons 76-85): Telephone: Writing Practice
			In German, students write out a short phone conversation between two individuals. They write it in the form of a script so it is clear who says what. In addition to the useful telephone phrases they have learned, students include a question to the person they are calling and their response. It can be something simple like "Do you want to go out tonight?"
Unit 26 (Lessons 76-85): Telephone: Assessments
		Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar	A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.
Unit 27 (Lessons 86-90): Semester 1 Final Review
Unit 27 (Lessons 86-90): Semester 1 Final Review: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: Scary Fairy Tale	Students read the Scary Fairy Tale story where they can further hear, read, and listen to German words within the context of the story told in English and then repeated in German. A quiz follows in which students answer questions about the story.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Details	Objectives/Instruction
Unit 27 (Lessons 86-90): Semester 1 Final Assessments
		Semester 2 Midterm Exam	A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the previous eight units.
		Semester 2 Midterm Speaking Exam	In 4-5 complete German sentences, students describe what they are wearing right now, including the color of their clothing.
		Semester 2 Midterm Writing Exam	In a short German paragraph, students describe where they want to go on vacation. In 4-5 complete sentences they answer the following questions: Why do you want to go there? What are you going to do there? Who do you want to go with you?
Unit 28 (Lessons 91-100): Directions
Unit 28 (Lessons 91-100): Directions: Vocabulary Activities
		Vocabulary Topic: Directions	Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 28 (Lessons 91-100): Directions: Grammar Activities
		Grammar Pattern: Past tense - present perfect	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.
Unit 28 (Lessons 91-100): Directions: Culture Activities
		Culture: Liechtenstein	Students read about a variety of topics including land and climate, history, the flag, population, language, religion, general attitudes, personal appearance, greetings, gestures, food, lifestyle, society, and government. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on the voting rights and the flag.
Unit 28 (Lessons 91-100): Directions: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: Chatter at a Royal Ball	Students learn to understand and to "perform" a conversation between two people watching a Royal Ball. They listen to and read Chatter at a Royal Ball for comprehension. They recognize terms and some patterns in the structure of sentences in Chatter at a Royal Ball. Finally, they practice telling parts of Chatter at a Royal Ball.
		Reading: Realia	Students read a road sign and summarizing the meaning of the road sign.
Unit 28 (Lessons 91-100): Directions: Assessments
		Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar	A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.
		Speaking Exam	In 4-5 complete German sentences, students describe what they are wearing right now, including the color of their clothing.
		Writing Exam	In a short German paragraph, students describe where they want to go on vacation. In 4-5 complete sentences they answer the following questions: Why do you want to go there? What are you going to do there? Who do you want to go with you?
Unit 29 (Lessons 101-110): Transportation
Unit 29 (Lessons 101-110): Transportation: Vocabulary Activities
		Vocabulary Topic: Transportation	Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 29 (Lessons 101-110): Transportation: Grammar Activities
		Grammar Pattern: Review of regular and irregular verbs	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Details	Objectives/Instruction
Unit 29 (Lessons 101-110): Transportation: Culture Activities
		Culture: Liechtenstein	Students read about a variety of topics including land and climate, history, the flag, population, language, religion, general attitudes, personal appearance, greetings, gestures, food, lifestyle, society, and government. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on the language and the capital.
Unit 29 (Lessons 101-110): Transportation: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: Observing Closely How German Works	When students can recognize and produce well-formed sentences they have the basics for something much more valuable—the ability to work creatively in their new language. Students work on expanding their grasp of grammar principles by encountering them in specific contexts, then by doing activities and challenges that reinforce their meaning.
Unit 29 (Lessons 101-110): Transportation: Assessments
		Quiz: Speaking	For each of the given locations, students record themselves in German telling how they would most likely get there. They try to use different methods of transportation for each one.
		Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar	A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.
Unit 30 (Lessons 111-120): Medical Words
Unit 30 (Lessons 111-120): Medical Words: Vocabulary Activities
		Vocabulary Topic: Medical Words	Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 30 (Lessons 111-120): Medical Words: Grammar Activities
		Grammar Pattern: More past tense - present perfect + simple past	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.
Unit 30 (Lessons 111-120): Medical Words: Culture Activities
		Culture: Lichtenstein	Students read about a variety of topics including land and climate, history, the flag, population, language, religion, general attitudes, personal appearance, greetings, gestures, food, lifestyle, society, and government. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on the arts and recreation.
Unit 30 (Lessons 111-120): Medical Words: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: Discovery of Grammar 7	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.
		Explore: Famous German Person	Using German resources such as online newspapers (faz.net, zeit.de, spiegel.de), magazines, books, students analyze why a certain currently living German-speaking person is so famous in his/her own country/culture. Then, they write two paragraphs (of at least five sentences each) about it in English. They answer whether that person could also be famous in America. If so, why or why not.
		Reading: Realia	Students imagine that while studying abroad, close to Bonn Germany, the skin around their eyes started to hurt. They went to see a doctor. They read the given prescription they got from the doctor to find out where they need to go to get their prescription filled.
Unit 30 (Lessons 111-120): Medical Words: Speaking Practice
			Students pretend they are at a very busy doctor's office. They overhear several different patients speak to the nurses and to each other telling what their symptoms are. They record themselves in German telling a friend what they heard. They should have three complete sentences.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Details	Objectives/Instruction
Unit 30 (Lessons 111-120): Medical Words: Assessments
		Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar	A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.
Unit 31 (Lessons 121-130): Sports
Unit 31 (Lessons 121-130): Sports: Vocabulary Activities
		Vocabulary Topic: Sports	Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 31 (Lessons 121-130): Sports: Grammar Activities
		Grammar Pattern: Accusative Review, Dative Introduction	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.
Unit 31 (Lessons 121-130): Sports: Culture Activities
		Culture: Lichtenstein	Students read about a variety of topics including land and climate, history, the flag, population, language, religion, general attitudes, personal appearance, greetings, gestures, food, lifestyle, society, and government. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on government and holidays.
Unit 31 (Lessons 121-130): Sports: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: The Key of the King's Kingdom	Students recognize terms from The Key of the King's Kingdom. They recognize some patterns in how sentences look in The Key of the King's Kingdom. They practice telling parts of The Key of the King's Kingdom. They record themselves giving a performance of The Key of the Kingdom in German.
Unit 31 (Lessons 121-130): Sports: Writing Practice
			Students pretend they just got back from Deutschland, and they have brought home gifts for their friends and family members! For each of the people, they write a complete sentence saying what it is they are giving them.
Unit 31 (Lessons 121-130): Sports: Assessments
		Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar	A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.
Semester 2 Midterm (Lessons 131-135)
Semester 2 Midterm Assessments (Lessons 131-135)			A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the previous units. In addition, there is an open-ended speaking assignment where students pretend they are sick and go to the doctor. They use 4-5 complete sentences to explain their symptoms and what they would tell the doctor. They are also given an open-ended writing assignment where they imagine they are in a new city and are trying to find a bank. They write out a conversation between themselves and someone they stop to ask for directions. Each person must say at least three lines.
Unit 32 (Lessons 136-145): Outdoor Activities
Unit 32 (Lessons 136-145): Outdoor Activities: Vocabulary Activities
		Vocabulary Topic: Outdoor Activities	Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 32 (Lessons 136-145): Outdoor Activities: Grammar Activities
		Grammar Pattern: Verb placement in all types and tenses of sentences	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Details	Objectives/Instruction
Unit 32 (Lessons 136-145): Outdoor Activities: Culture Activities
		Culture: Lichtenstein	Students read about a variety of topics including land and climate, history, the flag, population, language, religion, general attitudes, personal appearance, greetings, gestures, food, lifestyle, society, and government. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on economy.
Unit 32 (Lessons 136-145): Outdoor Activities: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: Toward Fluency 1	Students listen to and read Toward Fluency for comprehension. They gain a general as well as a detailed understanding of the grammar principles covered in Toward Fluency. Students demonstrate their ability to recognize and generate grammatically correct sentences incorporating the grammar principles they learn.
Unit 32 (Lessons 136-145): Outdoor Activities: Assessments
		Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar	A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.
Unit 32 (Lessons 146-155): Travel
Unit 33: Travel: Vocabulary Activities
		Vocabulary Topic: Travel	Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 33: Travel: Grammar Activities
		Grammar Pattern: Future tense	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.
Unit 33: Travel: Culture Activities
		Culture: Lichtenstein	Students read about a variety of topics including land and climate, history, the flag, population, language, religion, general attitudes, personal appearance, greetings, gestures, food, lifestyle, society, and government. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on transportation and communications.
Unit 33: Travel: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: An Uncomfortable Interview	Students listen and follow along with An Uncomfortable Interview for comprehension. They gain a general understanding of terms and parts of speech, and conversational prompts and rejoinders from An Uncomfortable Interview.
		Explore: Plan a Trip	Students plan the perfect vacation to a German-speaking location. Students visit their local tourism office or use a library or the internet to help plan their trip. Their plan should be for at least one week. They must track how much money it will cost to travel, stay in the places they choose, and eat. Students write one paragraph in German. They write a description of their travel and expense plan and be sure to include a list of places they plan to see and special activities they will want to do.
		Reading: Realia	Students imagine they have just arrived in Munich Germany. They stop by the tourism office and pick up some information including the following. What is the information about? (A train schedule)
Unit 33: Travel: Speaking Practice
			Students record themselves in German naming four or five objects they would need to go on a vacation overseas.
Unit 33: Travel: Assessments
		Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar	A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Details	Objectives/Instruction
Unit 34 (Lessons 156-165): Computers (part 1)
Unit 34 (Lessons 156-165): Computers (part 1): Vocabulary Activities
		Vocabulary Topic: Computers (part 1)	Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 34 (Lessons 156-165): Computers (part 1): Grammar Activities
		Grammar Pattern: Pattern Review Song	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.
Unit 34 (Lessons 156-165): Computers (part 1): Culture Activities
		Culture: Lichtenstein	Students read about a variety of topics including land and climate, history, the flag, population, language, religion, general attitudes, personal appearance, greetings, gestures, food, lifestyle, society, and government. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on education.
Unit 34 (Lessons 156-165): Computers (part 1): Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: Scatter Chart	Students listen to and read Scatter Chart for comprehension. They gain a general as well as a detailed understanding of the grammar principles covered in Scatter Chart. They demonstrate their ability to recognize and generate grammatically correct sentences incorporating the grammar principles they learn.
		Explore: Becoming a Lifelong Learner Report	Students are well on their way to becoming a lifelong German learner. Having regular habits of conversing with German speakers, getting information from German sources, and participating in German cultural events, sets them up for unique opportunities throughout their lives. Students take a few moments to reflect on their experience developing these habits, and how they imagine their connection to German unfolding over the next several years. They write one paragraph about their experience developing these habits and how they project they will stay connected to German and its culture. In a second paragraph, they reflect on how knowing German will help them in their life academically, personally, socially, and even professionally.
Unit 34 (Lessons 156-165): Computers (part 1): Writing Practice
			Students review the song in this weeks Pattern Practice. They write down three of the patterns the song reviews (in English) and then provide an example in German to support that pattern. Example: All German nouns are capitalized. der Mann, die Frau, das Mädchen
Unit 34 (Lessons 156-165): Computers (part 1): Assessments
		Quiz: Speaking	Students think of three questions they would ask someone they are meeting for the first time and record themselves asking them.
		Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar	A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.
Unit 35 (Lessons 166-175): Computers (part 2)
Unit 35 (Lessons 166-175): Computers (part 2): Vocabulary Activities
		Vocabulary Topic: Computers (part 2)	Students review and understand vocabulary through activities such as matching, writing, speaking, reading, and pronunciation practices.
Unit 35 (Lessons 166-175): Computers (part 2): Grammar Activities
		Grammar Pattern: Pattern Review Song	This concept is practiced through matching and translation exercises. Reading and listening comprehension exercises involving the vocabulary and grammar from this unit are also provided to students.

Unit	Lesson	Lesson Details	Objectives/Instruction
Unit 35 (Lessons 166-175): Computers (part 2): Culture Activities
		Culture: Lichtenstein	Students read about a variety of topics including land and climate, history, the flag, population, language, religion, general attitudes, personal appearance, greetings, gestures, food, lifestyle, society, and government. A short comprehension quiz follows the culture activity focusing on the national anthem, government, and history.
Unit 35 (Lessons 166-175): Computers (part 2): Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: A Mother Talks with Her Child	Students listen to and read A Mother Talks With Her Child for comprehension, and they become familiar with terms, phrases, and parts of speech in A Mother Talks With Her Child.
Unit 35 (Lessons 166-175): Computers (part 2): Writing Practice
			Students choose three of the five verses of the song they learned in this week's pattern practice and write a German sentence that illustrates correct usage of German according to that verse. Their sentences should not be copied directly from course materials or any other resource. They will have a total of three sentences (one illustrating each of the three verses they chose).
Unit 35 (Lessons 166-175): Computers (part 2): Assessments
		Quiz: Speaking	Students record themselves saying whether or not they like computers and a few things they know how to do on them. They might start by saying " Ich mag Computer gern (or nicht gern). " They must make sure their verbs are all in the correct position in the sentences.
		Quiz: Vocabulary and Grammar	A multiple choice test is given to assess students' understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics from the unit.
Unit 36 (Lessons 176-180): Semester 2 Final
Unit 36 (Lessons 176-180): Semester 2 Final: Stretch, Stories, and Explore Activities
		Stretch Activity: Scary Fairy Tale	Students read the Scary Fairy Tale story where they can further hear, read, and listen to German words within the context of the story told in English and then repeated in German. A quiz follows in which students answer questions about the story.
Unit 36 (Lessons 176-180): Semester 2 Final: Assessments
		Final Exam	Final multiple choice exam: assesses the student's understanding of the vocabulary and grammar topics of the second semester.
		Speaking Exam	Students respond to this prompt: Describe a happy experience from your life. What happened? When did it happen? Be sure to use 5-6 complete German sentences for your response.
		Writing Exam	Students write a response to this prompt: Imagine you won a personal assistant for the day. What would you make him or her do for you? Write five complete commands in German.