Course Number: ELA3012HVA

Grade level: 12

Prerequisite Courses: None

Credits: 1.0

Course Description

This senior-level English course offers fascinating insight into British literary traditions spanning from Anglo-Saxon writing to the Modern Period. With interactive introductions and historical contexts, this full-year course connects philosophical, political, religious, ethical, and social influences of each time period to the works of many notable authors, including Chaucer, William Shakespeare, Queen Elizabeth I, Mary Wollstonecraft, and Oscar Wilde. While critically reading fiction, poetry, drama, and expository nonfiction, honors students will master comprehension, use evidence to conduct in-depth literary analysis, examine and critique how authors develop ideas in a variety of genres, and synthesize ideas across multiple texts. The students complete literary analysis and deep dive into Hamlet and The Importance of Being Earnest. Adding an extra dimension to the British literary experience, this course also exposes students to informational and interpretive writings focused on reflections of arts and artifacts. Finally, the course concludes by exploring contemporary authors, such as Seamus Heaney and J.R.R. Tolkien.

Course Objectives

Throughout the course, you will meet the following goals:

- Demonstrate knowledge of foundational works of British and world literature
- Analyze seminal pieces of British and world literary nonfiction and evaluate their structure and reasoning
- Analyze the impact of an author's word choice and how that author's voice and choice of words relates to elements of a text
- Learn communication skills necessary for real-world presentations and collaboration
- Create a variety of original compositions in response to persuasive, expository, and literary prompts
- Learn to use standard English through a variety of grammar lessons

Student Expectations

This course requires the same level of commitment from you as a traditional classroom course would. Throughout the course, you are expected to spend approximately 5–7 hours per week online on the following activities:
Interactive lessons that include a mixture of instructional videos and tasks
Assignments in which you apply and extend learning in each lesson
Assessments, including quizzes, tests, and cumulative exams

Communication

Your teacher will communicate with you regularly through discussions, email, chat, and system announcements. You will also communicate with classmates, either via online tools or face to face, as you collaborate on project, ask and answer questions in your peer group, and develop speaking and listening skills.

Grading Policy

You will be graded on the work you do online and the work you submit electronically to your teacher. The weighting for each category of graded activity is listed below.
