

Thought-Provoking Curriculum Examining Race and Racism for Grades 6–12

Edgenuity, in partnership with Point Made Learning, is proud to offer Look Deeper: Race, a powerful 6–12 interactive online curriculum.

Having meaningful conversations about bias, race, and racism can be challenging. But these vital conversations are critical for our students and communities. Developed by Point Made Learning and based on their award-winning documentary I'm Not Racist... Am I?, this engaging course guides students and educators through examination, conversations, questions, and reflections about systemic racism in the United States.

This course follows 12 students through a year-long exploration into race, bias, racism, and more. Workshops and facilitators include:

- The People's Institute for Survival and Beyond
- Dr. Jennifer Yim, creator of The American Dream game
- Dr. Eddie Moore, Jr., founder of the White Privilege Conference and Privilege Institute
- Dr. Liza Talusan, nationally recognized equity and inclusion practitioner-scholar

On-Demand Professional Development Companion Course

Compelling Stories and Interactive Lessons that Foster an Equitable Community

Look Deeper: Race is a nearly four-hour course broken up into eight episodic lessons designed to help students learn, reflect, discuss, and grow in their understanding of systemic racism.

Students engage with documentary footage of other teenagers doing the same work and experiencing some of the same situations they face each day at home, at school, with their friends, and in their community. Look Deeper: Race doesn't focus on students learning one "right" answer. The adaptable content is built around learning new ideas to consider and new strategies to move forward.

This course features:

- Facilitation guides
- Discussion questions
- Activities
- Parent resources
