

Human Services

Human services careers include roles that support families, children and individuals of all ages as they manage the mental, emotional and practical demands of daily life.

Those in human services careers work in a broad spectrum of settings including hospitals, non-profit agencies, nursing homes, childcare centers, government offices, spas, hotels, schools, funeral homes, and schools. Imagine Edgenuity® CTE courses are geared towards developing strong skills in communication and problem solving that are focused on the local needs of the community.

Imagine Edgenuity offers courses designed to prepare students a variety of career options in human services. Students have access to a sequence of courses in three certification pathways to help them prepare them for industry recognized certification exams in early childhood development, early childhood education and care, and family and community services. Alternatively, students are provided courses mapped to national Career Pathways in early childhood development and services, or family and community services, providing them with the foundational knowledge and skills to prepare them for further study or career entry in these fields.

Entry level salary range:
