

Law, Public Safety, Corrections & Security

For students who have a keen interest in protecting or supporting people and processes involving the legal system, career opportunities are available across local communities and businesses, as well as in larger organizations at the county, state, and national levels.

Imagine Edgenuity® courses help students prepare for planning, managing, and providing legal, public safety, protective services, and security. This also includes preparation in professional and technical support services for these essential careers.

Imagine Edgenuity offers a set of course options to help students prepare for industry-recognized, NOCTI® legal services and criminal justice certification exams. The broad set of courses also provide opportunities for students to explore and concentrate their learning as they prepare for further study or career entry options across multiple interests in these careers.

There are approximately 4.9 million jobs in the fields of law, safety, corrections, and security across the United States. Security guards are predicted to represent the largest number of job openings between 2012 and 2022, followed by police, lawyers, correctional officers, and emergency medical responders.¹
